DOUGLAS-JONES MERCER

Straight forward legal advice when your business needs it.

DJM is one of Swansea's best known law firms and attributes its success to the high quality legal advice it provides to its clients and the manner in which it provides that advice. Within the firm the corporate and commercial department has a reputation as a leader in its field and is acknowledged by the Legal 500 as an "established player in the market".

The department is headed by Ken Morgan who has many years experience handling commercial matters. One of the firms rising stars however, is Sarah Jones and she, in her own right is creating a reputation as a dedicated solicitor committed to ensuring her clients' needs are met without delay. Sarah joined the practice in 2003 following employment with Eversheds.

Sarah not only ensures that clients receive the best legal advice but also prides herself on getting to know her clients' businesses so that direct and instant responses to their enquires are immediately available. Sarah says "One of the main differences between us and other law firms in the area is the individual attention we give each and every client. As an established law firm, we have strong links with other professionals such as accountants and bankers which together with our other specialist departments means that we have the ability to offer our clients a comprehensive service."

The Corporate and Commercial Department can provide advice to a variety of businesses, including sole traders, partnerships and private limited companies, on all aspects of corporate and commercial law including:

- Starting up in business
- Formation of companies
- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Demergers
- Management buy-outs
- Share sales and purchases
- Asset sales and purchases
- Distribution, Agency and Franchise Agreements
- Business Re-organisations
- Employment matters
- Partnership Agreements
- Joint venture entities
